SCOUTS ON TO CAMP SAM

It was just last Friday afternoon when we set out, and we were twenty-six including Scout Colburn Glover, (our leader) Miss Hodges and Director Keyserling. We departed from town in troop formation, but speedily left our ranks when Scout Glover led us through a briar patch and across a fallen tree. When the woods were reached we had our first lesson in trailing. A few members went ahead leaving marks on trees and on the ground. Finally we came to "The Creek." After a "screamy" wet passage we reached the opposite bank by going across straddling two logs when we didn't slide in the water. At last we came in sight of Camp Sam. Hastily we built a fire and ate our supper. Then the perilous journey home began. Crossing the creek wasn't half as bad as passing the cemetery in the dark. Our courage was kept up by the cheering songs of the girls led by Mary Jones which must have scared even the ghosts away. We hope the Boy Scouts will soon have the creek spanned with a real bridge, because we like Camp Sam and want to go back again.

Last week was Tenderfoot Examination week for the Pine Cone and Goldenrod Troops.

The Red Rose Troop, which is the youngest, is working hard to pass off its work. The Pine Cone Troop with the exception of one member completed all tests, making a troop of thirty-two members. The Goldenrod Troop, with the exception of seven scouts, completed all tests, making a troop of thirty-nine members. The registration and order blanks have been filled out and sent in to headquarters. We are now anxiously awaiting our uniforms and commissions.

SONGS

Girl Scouts are highminded Believe to my sole, they're double jointed They tie knots and don't mind it All day long. (Leola Vaughan Goldenrod Troop)

Girl Scouts will shine tonight C. Temple—Capt. Goldenrod Troop.

Girl Scouts will shine to-night Girl Scouts will shine to-night Shine in their beauty bright All up the line.

We're all dressed up to-night That's a good sign. When the sun goes down and the moon comes up Girl scouts will shine. Goldenrod will shine to-night Shine in all their beauty bright All up the line.

We're all dressed up tonight That's a good sign. When the sun goes down and the moon comes up. Goldenrod will shine.

Highway Commission to Desolve if Folks Rush to the Courts

Raleigh Nov. 9.—Halifax county citizens bucking the state highway commission and calling it into the state courts November 28th to show cause why an injunction shall not lie against its authorization of the Scotland Neck-Tarboro road by the "western route," rather than by Speed and Hobgood, furnished the distinct news break of today's highway news.

With one accord the commissioners declared if such procedure as this has its day in court and the state enjoins the commission from building roads where the engineers, the commission and the popular needs dictate then the commission will dissolve and write Iehabod above the temple on Morgan street. The Daily News bureau carried four weeks ago prophecy that this course would be taken.

It is all the more interesting because it is an assault directed by the powerful Kitchin faction in Halifax county.

The above, of interest to our readers, is taken from the Greensboro Daily News of November 10th.

HALIFAX COUNTY WINS CANNING PRIZES

The Halifax County Exhibit at the Tarboro Fair prepared under the direction of Miss Ethel Leatherwood, County Home Demonstration Agent, was awarded the second prize of $50.00 for the general exhibit and the first prize of $10.00 for the best County collection of fruits and vegetables. As exhibits were shown by twelve counties at this fair it is a matter of pride that Halifax County should have stood so well to the front.

The prizes and their winners on individual exhibits are given below:

WITH THE CHURCHES

All Saints Church
(Episcopal)
Rev. Lewis N. Taylor, Rector
Mrs. Katherine Webster, Parish Worker
Roanoke Avenue

What is youth?
Men have come and gone;
Empires have risen and fallen;
Dynasties have been created and put down.

But the Church of the Living God is 1900 years young.

It has triumphed over doubt and materialism.

It has a record for tenacity and longevity!

Go to church next Sunday. All Saints' extends a cordial welcome to you. 7:30 A. M. Holy Communion. 9:45 Church School, T. W. Mullen, Supt. 11 Service and sermon. 7:30 Evening service and sermon. The Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity. Armistice Day service tonight at 7:30. "Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget, lest we forget!"

Presbyterian Church
Rev. Stanley White, Pastor
Miss Lucy Crisp, Organist
Mr. J. H. Harrison, S. S. Supt.

Sunday School 10:00 A. M.
Morning Service 11:00 A. M.
Christian Endeavor 6:45 P. M.
Junior Christian Endeavor 3:00 P. M.
Evening Service 7:30 P. M.
Prayer Meeting Wednesday 7:30 P. M.

Rev. S. R. Oglesby, of Roanoke, N. C. will address the Men's Bible Class at the social meeting on Friday night. He will also fill the pulpit at both services on Sunday.

The pastor is away conducting a series of services in a church in Virginia.

Rosemary Methodist Church
Rev. C. M. Lance, Pastor

Regular preaching services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
Sunday School at 10 A. M.
A. E. Stowe, Supt.
Preaching at New Hope at 3:00 P. M.

With these services the work of the Conference year closes. The pastor expects to leave Tuesday morning for the N. C. Annual Conference which meets in New Bern. All the finances should be in hand by Sunday night.

The pastor will make a brief report of the work of the Church and charge for the past four years.

A full attendance of the members and friends of the church are desired.

Parent-Teacher Association to Furnish Milk to School Children.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Central School has decided to furnish a glass of milk each morning at 10:30 to all children in that school who desire it. This milk will cost four cents a glass. Tickets for the week will be sold Monday morning to the children. Twenty cents will buy a ticket which will be good for five glasses of milk or one glass a day for the entire week. These tickets can be bought from the teachers.

The children have recently been weighed and measured, and many of them have been found to be under weight.

It has been proved beyond a doubt that milk will remedy this trouble. The Parent-Teacher Association has done an excellent thing in providing milk for children and parents should see that their children do not suffer for a daily cup of milk.

Mrs. Ella Nance Taylor

Mrs. Ella Nance Taylor, of South Rosemary, died in the Roanoke Rapids Hospital, Sunday afternoon after a brief illness, aged forty years. She was taken very ill on Saturday morning. She is survived by a devoted husband, Mr. Charles Taylor, and three children. Quiet and unassuming, and of genial nature, her acquaintances naturally became her friends.

Funeral services were held in the home of her father-in-law, Mr. Thomas T. Taylor, on Five Hundred Street, Rosemary, Tuesday afternoon. In the absence of Rev. Mr. White, her pastor, Rev. Mr. Taylor, officiated. Interment was made in Cedarwood Cemetery.

THE TOY ARTIST TRIO NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

SEASON TICKETS STILL ON SALE

The Toy Artist Trio will appear in the Central School Auditorium next Tuesday night as the second number of the Lyceum Course. Lovers of good music are looking forward to this attraction with particular interest.

Only on rare occasions does a company of such artists visit a town the size of Roanoke Rapids.

The price of tickets will be 75 cents, but season tickets will be much cheaper. For the remaining eight numbers of the course a ticket may be purchased for $2.50. One attraction will probably be worth the price of a season ticket.

Our Armistice Celebration

In any kind of a celebration of any kind of thing, the chief thing to keep in mind is what we're celebrating. Then we can actually celebrate in the right sort of way. When we come to a celebration of the day which marked the end of all that roar and din and horror out on the battlefields of France, we must keep in mind three things, in order that we may celebrate acceptably. First, we must keep faith with those who suffered and served nobly during the days of war.

"If ye break faith with us who die, We shall not sleep, though poppies blow, In Flander's Field".

Then, looking to ourselves, we must realize that to "keep faith" we must give and serve in our time to make a better, happier world. And finally, thinking on ahead into the future, we know that somehow we must plan for a world, a country, a town which will make possible better, nobler manhood and womanhood in the days that are to follow our own. Keeping these things in mind, we will come to our celebration - the Community Sing - Friday night, in a happy state of mind, because we will be making ourselves, as well as other folks, happier. The sing will be held in the Auditorium of the Central School Building at 7:30 P. M. Friday, Nov. 11th. There will be no admittance fee. Everybody is invited. In addition to the songs which we all will sing together, there will be the following extra attractions:

1. Opening remarks by our Mayor, Dr. Long.
2. Special songs, by Baptist Sunday School, Rosemary; Methodist Junior Choir, Roanoke Rapids; Men's Bible Class, Presbyterian Church; Baptist Choir, Roanoke Rapids.
3. Piano Solo, by Miss Whitely.

Remember the hour, 7:30, and the place, Central School.

Tax Collectors Appointed

The Board of County Commissioners turned over the 1921 tax list to Sheriff J. A. House last Monday and the following tax collectors were appointed: Butterwood and Littleton—G. W. King.

Brinkleyville—G. L. Knight. Enfield—J. C. Branch. Faucetts—J. B. Dickens. Halifax—D. J. Milliken. Roanoke Rapids—H. L. Bell. Scotland Neck, Roseneath, Palmyra and Conocoanara—G. H. Johnson. Weldon—E. L. Green.

POWELLTOWN ITEMS

Rev. C. M. Lance preached his farewell sermon at Smith's church last Sunday to a big congregation. Mr. Lance has done great work while here and the people of Smith's community should feel greatly indebted to him. Our best wishes go with them both to their new home and work.

Dr. Zollicoffer, of Weldon, made a very helpful and interesting talk at Smith's Sunday. We are always glad to have Dr. Zollicoffer with us.

Misses Dunn and Perkinson spent the week-end with friends in Roanoke Rapids.

Miss Susan Ivey is still in Virginia with her daughter, Mrs. Jim Wright, who underwent a very serious operation in a Richmond hospital.

We are sorry to say that little Maxine Hawkins has been very sick for two days, but is improving now.

Mrs. B. D. Hawkins is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ollie Powell.

The many friends of Mrs. Charlie Taylor were made sad when the news of her death reached them. Our heart felt sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

Howard and Maxine Hawkins were at home last Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock to a party in honor of their birthdays, Howard being 7 and Maxine 4.

Twenty-four of their little friends were there and had a big time playing games. They were carried to the dining room which was decorated with autumn leaves and red and white chrysanthemums. Their birthday cake, with a candle for each year, sat in the middle of the table. The little folks greatly enjoyed seeing the candles lighted. Pink and white cake and cream were served, also several kinds of fruit. Many beautiful birthday presents were received. At 5 o'clock the little folks departed for their homes.

Arbor Day Program

Friday, November the eighteenth, the citizens of Roanoke Rapids and Rosemary will observe for the first time, as a community, Arbor Day. On that day citizens, schools and other organizations will plant trees. This community is young, progressive and its future is one of promise. We may congratulate ourselves upon the initiation of a movement that indicates a love of city, and a plan for its future glory.

The day would be incomplete without a community observance. The following is the Arbor Day program which will be held at the Central School at two o'clock in the afternoon.

1. My Country Tis of Thee - Audience.
2. Toast, "The Old North State" - Robert Crutchfield.
3. Address - Senator W. L. Long.
4. a. Song, October's Party - Primary Grades.
4. b. Song, Arbor Day - Grammar Grades and High School.
5. Recitation, "Trees" - Mat-dora Moseley.
6. Presentation of prize for best Arbor Day poem.
7. Reading of the poem.
8. Song, Birthright - Grammar Grades and High School.

A most successful Arbor Day is being predicted. Over a hundred trees have been ordered by property owners along the avenue alone. A representative from Van Lindley's in Greensboro is coming to manage the planting of these trees, and others who wish the services of a specialist may get in touch with him through Mrs. J. A. Moore. The splendid co-operation of the people of the town and the interest of the school children will surely carry through this fine movement.

Epworth League Social

The Lambuth Epworth League of the First M. E. Church, Roanoke Rapids, N. C., gave its first social last Friday night, November 4th 1921, presided over by its president, Mrs. W. L. House.

First they all engaged in playing games. Then a contest in making words from the words "Epworth League," which Miss Eula Lee Robinson won making the most words in ten minutes. A guessing box then in which Miss Louise Jackson won.

Then were many selections of music rendered by different ones which were thoroughly enjoyed by all. A talk was then given by Miss Mabel Braswell urging all the young people of the town to join the Epworth League.

The young girls above fifteen years of age were called together by their president to organize a reading circle. A part of the Epworth League work which will be done at an early date. And will be called "The Round Dozen."

After much merriment among the young folks, refreshments were served by Mrs. W. L. House, Mrs. M. D. Collier, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mrs. J. B. Edmonds, Mrs. C. M. Pitt and Mrs. L. L. Braswell. Each member of the League had the privilege of inviting someone. We had sixty three present. Some of our League members were absent that ought to have been present.
